Code of Ethics

These standards of conduct signify assumption by Members of the Franchise Association of New Zealand Incorporated the obligation of self-discipline, above and beyond any requirements of law or other recognised standards of their individual profession or industry. Observation of such standards is intended to assure that members will bring credit to the Association and enhance the reputation of franchising. Without limiting the foregoing Standards of Conduct require members:

1. To observe the highest standards of competence, integrity and service to the franchising community
2. To promote their products and services in an ethical and professional manner at all times
3. To broaden understanding of and enhance public regard and confidence in franchising
4. To abide by standards of decorum established by the Franchise Association of New Zealand Incorporated when participating in Association sponsored meetings, conferences and conventions
5. To abide by any promulgated decision of the Board of the Franchise Association of New Zealand Incorporated as to the scope and meaning of, and compliance with, this Code of Ethics.
